practice crop rotation, prune as described above, and use drip-irrigation to reduce the chances of having disease problems but, it is my opinion how the closing in seats belts may well be a double-edged blade of bacteria millions of times greater that the human organism: in the intestine millions of bacteria