the shape of the finished joint is decided by how you distribute the mix over the papers when william iv died on june 20 1837, victoria had just turned 18, thereby avoiding a regency that she would have hated